

Definitely Not Your Grandmother's Klezmer Music...

SDSU JEWISH STUDIES PROGRAM

AND Hillel of SDSU Present:

BEAT BOX AND NEW JEWISH MUSIC IN THE 21ST CENTURY AND BEYOND...

Josh Dolgin aka "SoCalled" in Concert @ SDSU

Canadian rapper and producer, known for his eclectic mix of hip-hop, klezmer and other styles, He has performed with such artists as David Krakauer's Klezmer Madness!, rapper C-Rayz Walz, Chilly Gonzales, funk trombonist Fred Wesley, and Sophie Solomon. A pianist and accordion player, Josh will present a program of traditional klezmer tunes and Yiddish songs that are part of a 1000 year old genre and deconstruct them using electronics, a beat box and voice. Appearing with SDSU's Yale Strom & his band.

Wed. November 5@7pm, Doors open 6:45pm

SDSU, Rhapsody Hall, Music Bldg.

Students/Staff/Faculty with RED.ID: FREE
General Public: $5.00 at the door
Seating is limited & available on a first come basis

Further info at: www.jewishstudies.sdsu.edu
Or email: jsprogram@projects.sdsu.edu