SDSU Jewish Studies Program Presents:

Tuesday, March 13, 7 pm, Smith Recital Hall

The PerSisters: Three of San Diego’s celebrated female vocalists unite to perform songs of love, defiance, persistence, faith and humanity. The repertoire will draw from the Latin American, African American and Jewish American experiences from the point of view of women. With Gunnar Biggs, contrabass, Fred Benedetti, guitar.

Free and open to the public | Information: jewishstudies@sdsu.edu
Coral MacFarland Thuet has been teaching at SDSU in the Department of Chicana/o Studies for the past 10 years. She has recorded several jazz and Latin music albums with top jazz musicians, performing in Spanish, English, Portuguese and Ladino.

Elizabeth Schwartz performs regularly with Yale Strom and Hot Pstromi as well as a solo artist. She has made appearances across North America and Europe in venues ranging from jazz clubs to concert halls as well as synagogues and festivals.

Lisa Payton is a native San Diegan, graduate of the San Diego School of Creative and Performing Arts. Her early professional career began in the 90’s and since then she has been seen in numerous productions in San Diego and abroad.
